Revised 3/2010

COURT REFERRAL PROGRAM

EVALUATION

Every defendant ordered into the Court Referral Program must be evaluated by a court referral officer. The CRO will then place the Defendant into one of the program levels listed below. (Note: All drug cases will start out at a minimum of Level II.)

Evaluation Fee: $75

LEVEL I

Level I consists of 12 hours of education from a state-certified court referral education program, monitoring, and drug testing.

One time fee for Level I Educational Classes: $145

(This fee does not include Monitoring and Drug Testing)

LEVEL II

Level II consists of 24 hours of education from a state-certified court referral education program. The defendant must complete a minimum of four hours of self-help meetings, to be determined by the court referral officer. The defendant must also complete monitoring and drug testing.

One time fee for Level II Educational Classes: $295

(This fee does not include Monitoring and Drug Testing)

LEVEL III

Level III consists of a treatment assessment, which must be completed by a master's or doctor's level psychologist or an LPC certified by the State Mental Health Department. The fee for the assessment depends on the psychologist and the facility. The defendant must comply with whatever treatment is required by the assessment, be it inpatient or outpatient. These defendants must also complete 12 months of monitoring and drug testing. In addition, the defendant must complete a minimum of 16 self-help meetings (AA, NA, etc.).

Assessment Fee: From $75 to $200 depending on the assessment facility.

Treatment Fees: (Depends the treatment facility)

(This fee does not include Monitoring and Drug Testing)
